Prinicpal Chatter

This week our school congratulates Mrs Beverley Van Nunen on the birth of her son. Bev and baby will be remaining in the Brisbane Hospital for the next couple of weeks. We wish Bev and her family the very best. Next semester, while Bev is on maternity leave, her upper primary class will be taught by a lovely teaching partnership. On Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays Kelly Kilner will be teaching and on Wednesdays and Thursdays Jane Downing will teach the class. Jane has been working in lower primary throughout first semester. Kelly is an experienced special education teacher who has recently moved to the area.

We look forward to Kelly and Jane joining the team.

I wish all our families a wonderful, happy, healthy and safe holiday. We look forward to seeing all our students back and ready for a great new term, Monday 13th July.
